Grand Massif Samoëns Morillon Resort Discovery & Excursions

Annecy, the Venice of Savoie (Half day)

Learn about Annecy's history while exploring the old town's lanes, arcadehouses, lively markets and lake, which feeds pure water into flower-lined canals. Accompanied by a GO Montagne guide, walk through Le Paquier and Les Jardins de l'Europ eparks , cross the Lovers' Bridge and pass in front of the former prisons until you reach Annecy castle overlooking the old town. And why not discover the region's gourmet delights, including wines, cheeses and regional specialities?

Megève, the chic village (Half Day)

Do you fancy a bit of retail therapy? Be enticed by countless luxury boutiques that line the pedestrian streets of the very chic resort of Megève, where global millionaires have holidayed for decades! And why not take a short break between shops to discover a speciality that has delighted taste buds for generations: the Megévan, a hazelnut pastry filled with raspberries.

Grand Massif Samoëns Morillon Resort Discovery & Excursions

Yvoire*, a medieval French village on the shores of Lake Geneva (1 Day)

Dive into history while discovering the village of Yvoire, one of the Loveliest Villages in France. Wander along charming blossoming lanes, marvel at gates and ramparts that protected the medieval village and savour a long lunch from one of the terraces overlooking the grandiose Lake Geneva. In the afternoon, head to Geneva, dubbed the “smallest of the great metropolises”. Come and discover the UN’s European headquarters, the Red Cross building or even the iconic Jet d’Eau water fountain before getting lost in the city’s low streets or taking a stroll through one of the many parks.

Panoramic Geneva (Half day)

Climb aboard one of the Belle Époque boats and enjoy a mini cruise: take in the incomparable views of the water fountain, the Mont-Blanc mountain range, the famous monuments and villas, not to mention the parks and gardens that border the shores of Lake Geneva. Take your time strolling through the old town to discover typical monuments or even be tempted by the wonders of Swiss watchmaking.

Grand Massif Samoëns Morillon Resort Discovery & Excursions

Samoëns, the Home of the Stonecutters

Samoëns is a great place to be to discover the history and heritage of the Giffre Valley, either through local produce tasting sessions (cheeses, meats, wines and spirits of the Savoie) with its wander round our market, one of the most famous markets in the Haute-Savoie region each Wednesday morning or through chapel visits, wandering in the local alpine botanical garden, Jaÿsinia, or even little trips and tours by train and coach.
